

NOTICE TO BUSINESSES

ATTN: Owner or Manager

RE: Masks, Distancing and Vaccinations in this jurisdiction

- You are under no lawful authority to require your employees or your patrons to wear a mask, stand six feet apart, or be vaccinated as a condition of entry or service.
- There is no statutory law that requires you, your employees or your patrons to wear a mask, stand six feet apart or be vaccinated.
- These are GUIDELINES of the State Dept of Health and local health boards. Any other ORDER is unlawful and must be challenged.
- Preventing entry to your establishment based on someone's appearance (bare-faced) or health condition (unvaccinated) violates several laws under the authority of:
 - The Constitution of this State
 - The United States Constitution
 - Federal Civil Rights Law (Title 11, Section 2000)
 - This state's civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination
- It is against the law to refuse entry to your establishment, which is open to the public. You are restricting the free movement of an individual and engaging in false imprisonment/unlawful restraint/trespass on personal liberty. You personally will be charged with these crimes.
- You are in violation of several laws if you prohibit the entry of someone based on their appearance (i.e., bare-faced) or health status (i.e., not vaccinated).
- Declaring this as your "store policy" does not absolve you from your violation of the law.
- Your store policies are invalid and unenforceable if they are in violation of state and federal law.
- Orders, measures, policies, directives, protocols, guidelines or recommendations are not the same as statutory law. No governor, mayor, store owner or health officer can make a law. You are in violation of the law if you restrict the entry of a member of the public to this establishment.
- Violating the above-mentioned laws while concealing your identity with a face-covering may elevate the criminal charges against you for denying entry to any person in this jurisdiction.
- You personally will be held liable for criminal action against you, which may result in thousands of dollars of fines, and imprisonment.
- ARREST WARNING: Any and all violations of my personal rights will be reported to authorities for immediate action. You are hereby notified that you personally will be held responsible for these violations of the law, regardless of store policies or health orders.
